

SSWM

sustainable sanitation
and water management

Sustainable Sanitation and Water Management Toolbox

THE POCKET KNIFE FOR WATER AND SANITATION EXPERTS!

The ideal:

- learning tool for students
- process and planning tool for planners
- implementation tool for NGOs and practitioners
- and resource for leaders and decision makers!

Concept & Background

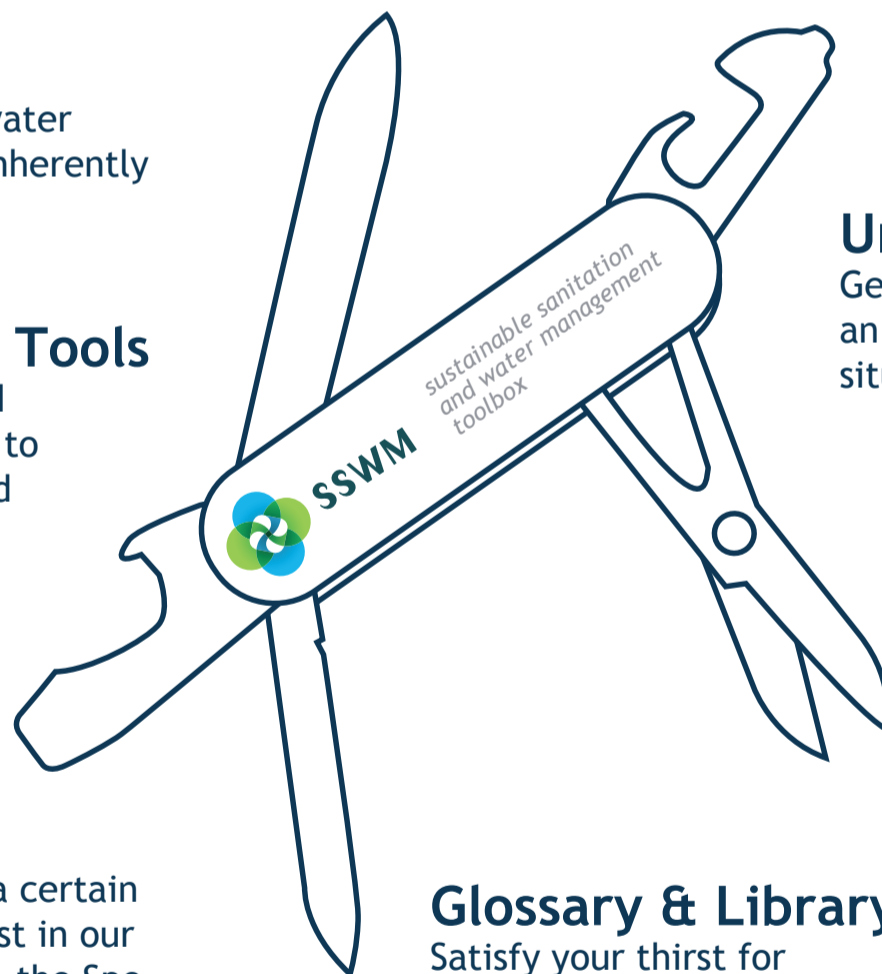

Sanitation, agriculture and water resources management are inherently linked - learn why!

Planning & Process Tools

Get an idea of how you could plan and run an intervention to make water management and sanitation more sustainable.

Specific Topics

Find specific information on a certain topic or region of your interest in our tailor-made "mini Toolboxes", the Specific Topic Entry Pages (STEPS).

Glossary & Library

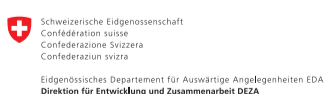

Satisfy your thirst for knowledge by browsing the „best of“ open source library with hundreds of further readings!

Understand your System

Get to know an easy approach to gain an overview of your specific problem situation.

Hardware & Software

Discover hundreds of technologies and approaches to improve water management and sanitation locally - along with supporting technical documents, case studies, awareness and training materials, ready made powerpoints and links!

Created by:
seecon gmbh
society - economy - ecology - consulting

seecon and its partnering organisations also offer tailor-made training courses and workshops in the field of SSWM upon request to sswm@seecon.ch.